

A wooden ladder is shown from a low angle, extending from the bottom of the frame towards a bright blue circular opening in a dark blue background. The ladder's rungs and side rails are clearly visible, creating a strong sense of perspective and upward movement. The circular opening is perfectly centered and appears to be a doorway or a window looking out into a bright, clear sky.

Transitioning-Time For A Break

A group of white paper cutouts of people holding hands in a circle, symbolizing teamwork. The cutouts are arranged in a line, with some in the foreground and others in the background, creating a sense of depth. The background is a solid green color.

Building A High Performing Team

Strength Of The Team You Inherit

Self-Reflection

Think of a time when you were part of a team that “just clicked” --when everyone on the team was working together and they were achieving results.

Describe how people interacted with one another and what the leader was doing that enhanced the teamwork.

Take a few minutes to jot down your example and then we will ask for volunteers to share.

Inherited Team Assessment

Assess the people you've got and the dynamics at play.

Second, reshape the team's membership, sense of purpose and direction, operating model, and behaviors according to the business challenges you face.

Third, accelerate the team's development by scoring some early wins.

Inherited Team Assessment

Competence

- Has the technical expertise and experience to do the job effectively

Trustworthiness

- Can be relied upon to be straight with you and to follow through on commitments

Energy

- Brings the right attitude to the job (isn't burned-out or disengaged)

Inherited Team Assessment

People skills

- Gets along well with others on the team and supports collaboration

Focus

- Sets priorities and sticks to them, instead of veering off in all directions

Judgment

- Exercises good sense, especially under pressure or when faced with making sacrifices for the greater good

The background of the slide features a 3D-rendered scene with three red location pins of varying sizes placed on a grey road with white dashed lines. The pins are set against a soft, blue-toned sky and ground, creating a sense of depth and focus on the central pin.

The 5 Dysfunctions of Team

- ABSENCE OF TRUST
- Team members are reluctant to be vulnerable with one another, unwilling to admit their mistakes, acknowledge their weaknesses or ask for help.
- FEAR OF CONFLICT
- Teams are unlikely to engage in unfiltered, passionate debate about key issues and can lead to sub-optimal decision-making since the team is not benefiting from the true ideas and perspectives of its members.

The 5 Dysfunctions of Team

- LACK OF COMMITMENT
- Without conflict, it is extremely difficult for team members to truly commit to decisions because they don't feel that they are part of the decision. Creates an environment of ambiguity and confusion that can lead to frustration among employees, especially top performers.

The 5 Dysfunctions of Team

- AVOIDANCE OF ACCOUNTABILITY
- Teams don't commit to a clear plan of action, peer-to-peer accountability suffers greatly. Individuals hesitate to call their peers on counterproductive actions and behaviors if they believe those actions and behaviors were never agreed upon in the first place.
- INATTENTION TO RESULTS
- Increases the likelihood that individual ego and recognition will become more important than collective team results. The business suffers and the team starts to unravel.

Setting A Clear Vision and Direction

High Performing Teams/Engagement

- Need to Re-engage The Workforce
- Re-build Trust
- Honor the Work and Commitment of the Past 3 Years
- Have a transition ceremony
- Think of the possibilities

Group Discussion

Think of a team you are leading and reflect on the following questions:

- How well is your team:
 - Achieving their results?
 - Communicating with key stakeholders?
 - Working together?

What new action will you take to enhance your team's effectiveness based on what you have learned today?
