

December 9, 2020

Award-winning Artists Make Holiday Concert Available Exclusively to Front-line Caregivers and Patients

As COVID-19 rages across America, hospitals and health systems and their extraordinary staffs continue to bring care and comfort to our communities. To say thank you, Musicians On Call collaborated with the AHA to offer AHA members access to Hope for the Holidays Presented by Citi, a virtual concert featuring award-winning artists that will bring the joy of the holiday season to patients, families and all hospital employees.

This one-of-a-kind festive concert experience features holiday messages from Dolly Parton, Kelly Clarkson, Billie Eilish and more and uplifting performances by Leslie Odom Jr., Meghan Trainor, Josh Groban, HAIM and Pentatonix, just to name a few.

When: The concert will be available through a private link starting Dec. 9 and available on-demand for patients and caregivers through Jan. 6, 2021.

How: To get your exclusive access to Hope for the Holidays Presented by Citi, please visit here and complete the form to receive a link and access code.

Who: Please share with your patients, medical staff and employees. Feel free to distribute to patients to watch on their own devices, broadcast on CCTV (if applicable) and share with employees as you see fit. Musicians On Call requests that hospitals do not share the link or details externally or on social media, as this is an exclusive concert for patients and caregivers only.

Musicians On Call uses music to promote and complement the healing process through the Bedside Performance Program, Virtual Bedside Performance Program and Music Pharmacy. For more information, click here.

Further Questions

If you have questions, please contact the AHA at 800-424-4301.