2025 THA Emerging Leadership Forum Sponsorship Agreement

The Emerging Leadership Forum is a program designed to give emerging hospital leaders an opportunity to network, gain THA leadership experience and grow in their understanding of policy issues. The goal of the ELF is to provide opportunities for mentoring and leadership to ensure the advancement of members to future leadership roles within the industry and association. There are four regional meetings per year that are a day and a half in length. As a sponsor of the event, you are afforded a unique opportunity to engage with the ELF in an intimate event setting.

ELF

Sponsor the Texas Hospital Association's Emerging Leadership Forum and engage with
Hospital Leaders seeking growth in leadership.

As a sponsor of the ELF, you will join hospital executives as they learn from peers at other hospitals about the challenges they face and the solutions they've developed. You'll make contacts who will serve as invaluable resources for you as you grow your hospital business in Texas. ELF members serve a three-year term, where they gain invaluable insight into the workings of the THA and its many affiliated organizations. By sponsoring this council, you will be helping burgeoning leaders and their hospitals achieve greater success.

THA's Emerging Leadership Forum provides a forum for developing health care leaders to:

- Become involved and educated about the Texas Hospital Association and its affiliated organizations.
- Understand the advocacy role and public policy positions supported by the THA Board of Trustees.
- Network with peers to develop meaningful relationships, share experiences and transfer knowledge.
- Visit member hospitals throughout Texas, building an understanding of each ELF member's community as well as the special strengths and challenges each facility faces.
- Gain professional development including best practices and leadership training.

Testimonials

"The Leadership Development Council is a committee that provides great professional and personal development. Not only does it give young careerists an opportunity to build relationships within the THA, but it also generates great relationships across the state within the industry. I have found my experience to be invaluable, allowing me to grow, not only with my professional network, but also with my industry knowledge. In addition, these relationships have continued to carry on well past my participation on the LDC. Understanding the successes and challenges of my peers, throughout, has proven to be a great learning opportunity as I have maneuvered through my own career."

Tripp Montalbo,
Chief Executive Officer,
Mainland Medical Center
LDC Member 2011-2014

"LDC was a great way to learn about the inner workings of THA and its many committees. Also, it provided a framework to network with colleagues across the state of Texas."

LDC Member 2008-2010
